DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS

Hobbyist

A full stack social-platform application that allows users to discover new hobbies and keep track of their learning progress using the in-app hobby tracker and rating features. Utilizes Materialize, JS, jQuery, Java, MySQL, Spring Boot, and Thymeleaf.

DadLister

This group project was created to allow users to post questions that are best answered by a Dad figure in categories such as: BBQ Banter, Motor Moments, and Sports Stuff. This project uses JSPs, Servlets, JDBC, and MySQL.

Movie Project

Pair programming project that uses Javascript and a JSON server to simulate an API. User can add, edit, and delete the movies they submit.

Weather Map Project

Project uses Javascript and two APIs: Mapbox and Open WeatherMap. A user's search will show new city and weather, and create a pin. User can drag and drop pin to update weather.
