DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS

Pressd

May 2021

Pressd was created as a Capstone project to help individuals be more socially and physically active as we approach the end to the Covid-19 Pandemic. Pressd allows individuals to find workout plans, fitness coaches, and workout buddies to reach their fitness and social goals.

Languages: JavaScript, HTML, CSS, Bootstrap, Java, Thymeleaf, MySQL, jQuery

Movie Project

January 2021

The Movie Project was created dynamically using The Movie Database API to allow users to search movie titles and add them to their saved movie list. This project lets users watch previews, courtesy of YouTube, before selecting and adding.

Languages: JavaScript, HTML, Bootstrap, jQuery

Weather Project

January 2021

The Weather Map Project was created to dynamically show a 5-day forecast for any given location as selected on the map. I created this project.

Languages: JavaScript, HTML, Bootstrap, jQuery

Coffee Project

December 2020

The Coffee Project was created to simulate web development for a coffee company. This project was meant to solidify BOM and DOM experience while introducing jQuery concepts. My role was a codeveloper with a classmate and I ensured the structure and local storage was implemented.

Languages: JavaScript, HTML, Bootstrap, jQuery

Design Project

December 2020

The Design Project was created to give developers the opportunity to build a dynamic website based on a wireframe utilizing bootstrap. My role was a codeveloper with a classmate and I ensured the structure, buttons, and adaptability of the project was consistent with the wireframe and screen size breakpoints.

Languages: JavaScript, HTML, Bootstrap

Responsive CSS Project

December 2020

This project was meant to give developers experience with media queries and responsive breakpoints. I was a codeveloper and was responsible for creating the baseline design while consulting the adjustments of larger breakpoints.

Languages: JavaScript, HTML, Bootstrap
